

Volunteer role description Green woodworker volunteer

What is a Green woodworker volunteer?

Green woodworkers make objects such as stakes and dibbers out of fresh timber. Green woodworking at the Palace requires no prior knowledge or experience and is a team activity taking place throughout the warmer months. Volunteers gain hands-on experience in an historic garden, work wood using sustainable techniques and, after training, produce high-quality items and demonstrate their skills at public events, engaging others with this fascinating handmade craft.

What's in it for you?	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • The opportunity to learn and develop woodworking skills in the surroundings of Fulham Palace • To be involved in a sustainable, environmentally-friendly practice incorporating handmade techniques from start to finish • Meet like-minded individuals and become part of a fun and social team • Get creative with natural materials, working with your hands and using a traditional craft • Produce high quality items, some of which will be for sale in the Fulham Palace shop and on the barrow • To be involved with a positive and engaging volunteer culture including social events, outings, forums and our volunteer portal - where volunteers are able to contribute blogs posts; join in discussions with other volunteers, sign up to sessions and access all the information you need as a volunteer online • A reference when you have volunteered with us regularly for 6 months
