

Great British bird watch 2021

The Fulham Palace garden team took part in the Great British bird watch 2021 in February and saw many different species.

Find their results below and see if you can answer our quiz questions!

No.	No. seen at Fulham Palace	Species	Question
1	2	Pigeon 	How many types of pigeons or doves are native to the UK and can you name them?
2	4	Wood pigeon 	There are always lots of these about, so have you seen any today?
3	1	Carrion crow 	The carrion crow - ( corvus corone ), is an opportunist feeder, eating, insects, small creatures, eggs and young birds as well as any found carrion. How many native UK corvus species are there?
4	1	Wren 	Is the wren the UK's smallest bird? True or false
5	4	Blue tit 	How many of the tit family can you name?

6	1	Dunnock 	What is the common, incorrect name given to dunnocks?
7	2	Goldfinch 	What does a goldfinch mainly eat?
8	3	Great tit 	In relation to the blue tit, is the great tit bigger or smaller?
9	13	Magpie 	The magpie, along with the raven and rook have often been expressed as bad luck in folk lore. Magpies are shrewd birds and can learn to copy many sounds of other birds. Do you know of a folk lore rhyme about magpies?
10	6	Robin 	The robin or robin redbreast is one of the most popular birds in the UK. What characteristics do you think the robin has to make it so?
11	1	Great spotted woodpecker 	How many birds in the woodpecker family can you name?