

Fulham Palace House & Garden

Volunteer role description

Volunteer Communications assistant

What is a Volunteer communications assistant?

Our volunteer communications assistants support the volunteer development officer with volunteer communication activities, mainly through writing blogs, updating content for the newsletter and updating our dedicated website for Fulham Palace volunteers.

What's in it for you?	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • The opportunity to improve your technical communication skills • Gain experience in creating and collating content for a website visited by around 200 volunteers • Develop your experience of writing professional blog posts • Work across multiple departments promoting volunteering and the work of our volunteers • Become part of a vibrant and dedicated team • Meet people from all walks of life and make new friends • Be involved with a positive and engaging volunteer culture including social events, outings and forums • A reference when you have volunteered with us regularly for 6 months
What's involved?	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Developing, scheduling and publishing regular content on the Fulham Palace Trust Volunteer Portal • Encouraging and engaging volunteers to contribute content to the website • Regularly updating the website's events calendar with volunteer training opportunities, events and other relevant information • Supporting the training of fellow volunteers on the website • Monitoring the website's forum and web analytics • Identifying opportunities for improvements to the website and problem solving where necessary • Helping the Volunteer development officer curate the volunteers newsletter.
This role will suit people who...	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Have an interest in computers and IT software • Are able to pay close attention to detail as well as work effectively as part of a team • Have experience of creating/maintaining websites

	or content management websites/blogs <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Enjoy working independently or with minimal assistance
Availability	Flexible but generally a day or half day per week. Normal working days at Fulham Palace are Monday to Friday; however, there are opportunities to work from home. Volunteers must keep in regular contact with the Volunteer Development Officer and attend a planning meeting every 3 months.
Main contact	Rachel Bray, volunteer development officer
Training/Resources	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Volunteers will be given training to carry out and develop in your role including Trello and MailChimp training • All volunteers have a named supervisor and regular opportunities to discuss their work • Full induction including health and safety procedures • All new volunteers have an introduction period, this is a settling in time of around 2 months. At the end of this an appropriate person will catch up with you; this is an opportunity for both parties to reflect and make any adjustments to the role that are needed
Getting to the Palace	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • The nearest tube station is Putney Bridge • The nearest railway station is Putney • There are several bus stops within walking distance • We reimburse travel expenses up to £8 per session
What next?	Please get in touch by completing an enquiry form, available at: https://www.fulhampalace.org/get-involved/volunteer-at-fulham-palace/ If you have any questions you can contact our Volunteer Enquiry Assistants by emailing volunteer@fulhampalace.org or telephoning 020 7751 2433 Potential volunteers will be invited to an informal interview to discuss the role further in person.
Fulham Palace values the involvement of volunteers; they enhance everything we are able to do. We are committed to offering volunteer opportunities of a high standard and welcome feedback.	