

The green meet

Keynote speakers

Alexandra Yellop

Alexandra is a community grower, nature facilitator and educational programmer. Her work is rooted in their passion for sharing knowledge of ancestral land practices as a means of reclaiming a deeper connection with the natural world. She is the founder of Earth Tenders, a platform honouring the contributions of earth practitioners from marginalised groups.

Miranda Lowe

Miranda Lowe is a Principal Curator and museum scientist at the Natural History Museum, London. With over two decades worth of collections management and curatorial skills she cares for a plethora of historically important specimens from both the Challenger and Discovery oceanic expeditions.

Hattie Moore

Hattie is a third year Diploma Student at the Royal Botanic Gardens Kew. With a masters in Sculpture at the UCL Slade School of Fine Art, Hattie began her foray into horticulture through making art about gardens and plants. She aptly decided to change careers through working as a maintenance gardener around London which led to an 18 month garden apprenticeship at Fulham Palace.

Lucy Hart

Lucy Hart has been Fulham Palace's head gardener since 2011. Lucy began in horticulture at the age of 13 before leaving school for Merrist Wood horticultural college at 16. Her eyes opened to gardening and growing in a public garden setting after gaining work experience. In 2003 she did the Kew Diploma and stayed on at Kew as a team leader for eight years.
