Meet Father Christmas in the historic library

Make your Christmas fair experience even more magical!

Before meeting Father Christmas, children can craft a special Christmas keepsake to treasure. Then step into the festively decorated library to share their wishlist, take a memorable photo and receive a special gift before slipping away through the secret door.

Ask at the information desk  or follow the signs to upgrade your ticket and join the experience.

£30.00* per child • includes gift & craft

Earn effortless income from your home

Join London's leading community of homeowners who let their properties through Veeve to discerning travellers. As proud sponsors of this year's Fulham Palace Christmas Fair, we're embedded in the local community as experts in short term rentals.

Clare, Maida Hill

"We've been delighted with Veeve's proactivity – advising us on availability, promoting our property, and generally making the booking process effortless on our side."

Nick, Balham

"From my first meeting, to my first guest I felt fully supported and my flat was let consistently when available and was returned to me in immaculate condition."
